Faith Fest is a day-long retreat opportunity for 6th-8th graders hosted by students at Augustana University. This year's theme, "We are a Family," is based on Colossians 3:14. Our special musical guest will be David Scherer, a gifted musician and engaging worship leader. This year's schedule includes service projects in the Sioux Falls community, worship, games, crafts and more!

Register at augie.edu/FaithFest by Jan. 24.

For more information, contact Reverend Shawna Day at shawna.day@augie.edu or 605.274.4805.

David Scherer is a performer, teacher, author, trainer and facilitator who helps people build bridges across the “differences that make a difference.” Whether it’s performing in football stadiums around the country or training a small group of executives, Scherer inspires people to break down the barriers that divide them and work for justice for all people. His reconciliation work has taken him across the world to Bosnia, El Salvador, Haiti and other countries. He teaches graduate school intercultural competence courses, is a qualified administrator in the Intercultural Development Inventory (IDI) and trained facilitator with the Kaleidoscope Institute. He has founded multiple youth leadership development programs, and in 2009, he received the Tommy Award for his work with young people.
